On 17-18 March 2025, PSA Romblon, in collaboration with the PSA Regional Statistical Services Office (RSSO) MIMAROPA, successfully held the Civil Registry System Mobile Serbilis Outlet services at G/F Capitol Building, Brgy. Capaclan, Romblon, Romblon, offers residents convenient access to essential civil registration services.

The Mobile CRS Outlet, which enables the same-day release of requested papers, allows locals to request civil registry documents with less effort, time, and expense to obtain important documents including CENOMAR, CENODEATH, Birth, Marriage, and Death certificates.

Also, PSA Romblon provided National ID services during the activity, offering Step-2 registration, ePhilID issuance, and Transaction Reference Number (TRN) verification and retrieval, and assistance in the generation of the Digital National ID.

During the two-day event, 435 transactions on civil registry documents were processed. Meanwhile, a total of 52 registrants were enrolled in National ID.

The event's success illustrates PSA's dedication to improve service delivery and making civil registration and National ID services accessible to all Filipinos, particularly those in marginalized communities.
