PSA PSO Marinduque, in partnership with its stakeholders, proudly concluded the 35th Civil Registration Month (CRM) with a successful culminating activity

28 February 2025 – BOAC, MARINDUQUE. To cap off a month dedicated to promoting the importance of civil registration, the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Marinduque Provincial Statistical Office successfully hosted a culminating activity for the 35th Civil Registration Month (CRM). This event served as a platform to highlight the agency’s initiatives aimed at making civil registration more accessible, accurate, and inclusive for all Filipinos.

Throughout the month-long celebration, PSA PSO Marinduque carried out various awareness campaigns, mobile registration services, and collaborative efforts with stakeholders to emphasize the critical role of civil registration in ensuring every citizen's legal identity.

The event commenced with a solemn prayer, followed by an inspiring welcome message from Chief Statistical Specialist Gemma N. Opis, who underscored the significance of continuous efforts in enhancing civil registration services.

A keynote message was delivered by MIMAROPA Regional Director Leni R. Rioflorido, who emphasized the commitment of PSA in advancing the accessibility and efficiency of civil registration through digital transformation and community engagement.

One of the highlights of the program was the presentation of 35th CRM accomplishments, showcasing the various activities conducted throughout the month, including information dissemination campaigns, mobile registration services, and collaborative initiatives with local government units and stakeholders to strengthen civil registration efforts.

The event also featured interactive games and entertaining intermission numbers, adding a festive atmosphere while fostering camaraderie among participants.

In recognition of outstanding contributions and support, an Awarding of Certificates was held to honor individuals and organizations who played a crucial role in the success of the 35th Civil Registration Month activities.

The event concluded with a heartfelt closing message from Registration Officer II Ginalyn M. Muhi, expressing gratitude to all participants, partners, and stakeholders for their unwavering support in promoting the importance of timely and accurate civil registration.
