Date of Release: 10 July 2025

Reference No.: 2025-PR-056

Information Dissemination and National ID services during the 2025 Serbisyo Caravan

01 July 2025 - CALAPAN CITY, ORIENTAL MINDORO. The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Provincial Statistical Office (PSO) of Oriental Mindoro in partnership with the Local Government Unit of Bansud facilitated National ID registration, issuance of National ID in paper form, and Information Dissemination to Bansudeños during the 2025 Serbisyo Caravan at Gender and Development Building, Municipal Compound, Barangay Poblacion, Bansud.

This initiative was spearheaded by PSA Oriental Mindoro under the leadership of Officer-in-Charge Charlyn Romero-Cantos alongside with the Officer-in-Charge Marydel M. Rodriguez of Public Employment Service Office (PESO) Bansud.

In conclusion, the National ID Information Dissemination and Registration event in Bansud successfully provided valuable information to the local community and facilitated the registration of individuals who will benefit from the National ID system. Through these initiatives, the PSA continues to play a pivotal role in improving public services and reinforcing the importance of the National ID in ensuring secure and efficient identification for all Filipinos.

The National ID team assisted and registered 35 residents with six of them issued the National ID in paper form.

For further information and updates on National ID registration and other services, residents are encouraged to visit the official PSA Oriental Mindoro's FB page: <https://www.facebook.com/psa.orientalmindoro> or reach us via email: orientalmindoro@psa.gov.ph or contact their nearest local registration centers.
