Oriental Mindoro National ID Personnel Partner with DSWD for National ID Registration and Authentication of 4Ps Beneficiaries in Baco, Oriental Mindoro

25 February 2025 – BACO, ORIENTAL MINDORO. The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) Provincial Statistical Office of Oriental Mindoro (PSO OrMin), in collaboration with the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), has officially relaunched the National ID Registration and Authentication Program (4Ps). This initiative is designed to simplify the registration process and ensure that every 4Ps beneficiary is integrated into the National Identification System.

As of 29 January 2025, PSA Oriental Mindoro has begun National ID registration and authentication services across several municipalities and in Calapan City, including Puerto Galera, San Teodoro, Baco, Naujan, Victoria, Socorro, Bansud, Bongabong, and Bulalacao. These areas now offer accessible platforms for 4Ps Beneficiaries to register and authenticate their National IDs.

“We are thrilled to continue this essential program that will enhance the delivery of government services to our 4Ps Beneficiaries,” said PSO Ormin Officer-in-Charge Charlyn Romero-Cantos, Chief Administrative Officer. “This initiative ensures that all eligible individuals are included in the National ID System, streamlining their access to various services and benefits.”

The registration process is currently ongoing in the selected areas, with measures in place to guarantee a safe and convenient experience for beneficiaries. The public is encouraged to visit their local DSWD office or inquire at their Barangay Hall for additional details on schedules and required documents.

For updates on registration schedules and locations, please visit the official PSA Oriental Mindoro’s FB page: <https://www.facebook.com/psa.orientalmindoro> or reach us via email: orientalmindoro@psa.gov.ph or contact their nearest local registration centers.
